

Members of InfoSecIITR-Shishir Jindal(4th year CSE), Tanmay Tiwari(4th year CSE), Asutosh Palai(4th year CSE) and Paras Chetal(3rd year CSE)-secured the 1st position in India and 10th position on the international level in the cybersecurity competition CSAW, organized by New York University at IIT Kanpur.

CSAW is a cybersecurity competition in which participants have to solve Capture-the-Flag type challenges in the field of Web security, Binary exploitation, Cryptography & Cryptanalysis and Forensics.

The competition saw a huge participation of around 1400 teams from all over the world on the preliminary level. Finals were conducted in 5 regions and one of them was IIT Kanpur, India. Around 15 teams participated from India in the finals.