National Conference

On

Intellectual Property and Entrepreneurship (NCIPE-2018)

17 March, 2018

Organized by
IPR Chair

Indian Institute of Technology Roorkee
Roorkee, Uttarakhand, India

BACKGROUND

Individuals have thoughts and ideas. In business, new ideas can prompt new products and services. They can prompt a superior method for accomplishing something. Thoughts and ideas can originate from existing organizations through innovative work.

Ideas produce an incentive to the economy by urging individuals to purchase or put resources into new advancements. Numerous thoughts originate from entrepreneurs who go ahead to fire up new business. They also inspire competitors to invent new products in order to regain market share.

In contemporary time it would not be exaggerated to say that the creativity and innovation is the key to successful business. According to WIPO, Intellectual property (IP) refers to creations of the mind, such as inventions; literary and artistic works; designs; and symbols, names and images used in commerce. Intellectual property rights (IPR) can be utilized to ensure the innovation, mark name, plan and inventiveness behind the idea. It gives the maker sole responsibility for idea, also to owning physical property like a house. Proprietors can control the utilization of their licensed innovation to increase money related reward.

The effective use and management of Intellectual Property and IPR is the need of hour for entrepreneurs and to minimize risk involved in new venture. The objective of the conference is to provide a platform to academicians and researchers along with the industry people to discuss the changing role of IP in economic, social, cultural and entrepreneurship development.
