Application are invited from Indian Nationals for a post of Senior Research Fellow (SRF) to work in the research project entitled, “Detection and Mitigation of Dairy Pathogen and Detection of Adulterants using Chemical Biology” (NAIP-417-BIO) sponsored by Indian Council of Agriculture Research (ICAR), New Delhi. The Project has a duration of one year. Interested candidate may appear for the walking interview before the selection committee on May 31, 2013 at 11:00 AM in the office of the PI, Dr. N.K. Navani, Department of Biotechnology, IIT Roorkee. Candidates are requested to submit bio-data along with attested copies of the certificates to the office before the start of the interview.

Qualifications:

(i) First class M.Sc. in Biotechnology or Microbiology with minimum two years research experience.
(ii) The candidate should have a good experience in Biosensor/ Molecular recognition elements/ and molecular cloning & expression.

Maximum age: 32 Years

Emoluments: Rs. 18000/- per month + HRA as institute rule

Note: The upper age limit is relaxable up to 5 yrs. in the case of candidates belonging to SC/ST categories, woman and physically handicapped candidates. No TA/DA is permissible for attending the interview.

Copy to:
1. All concerned institutions in India.
2. All HOD’s in IIT Roorkee.
3. Librarian Central Library, IIT Roorkee,
4. All Notice Boards of the institute,
5. Institute website and
6. Dean (SRIC) for information and necessary action please.