

Travel

Roorkee town is situated 50 km south of the lower Himalayan Range and lies in the district of Haridwar in Uttarakhand. It is considered to be the gateway to pilgrimage centres of many renowned places like Haridwar, Rishikesh and hill stations such as Mussoorie.

Roorkee is well connected by roads and is located 180 km north of New Delhi. Roorkee is connected to New Delhi by rail as well. Buses from Inter-State Bus Terminal (ISBT), New Delhi to Dehradun/Haridwar/Rishikesh pass through Roorkee. Taxi services are also available from Indira Gandhi International Airport, New Delhi Railway Station and ISBT. Dehradun Shatabdi and Janshatabdi Express are the most convenient trains for travelling between New Delhi and Roorkee.

The temperature in Roorkee varies between 15°C to 30 °C in October.

Accommodation

Limited accommodation is available in the Institute Guest House and Student Hostels, which will be booked by the organizers on a first-come-first-served basis. A google form link has been sent along with the abstract acceptance email. Participants should use that to request for the accommodation. Email requests will not be entertained. For students, first preference will be student hostels only. Please note that depending upon availability, a participant might have to share the room with other participants. Charges applicable for the accommodation have to be paid in full by the participants. For guest house charges, please check the webpages on the following link <http://ghbooking.iitr.ac.in/New%20Tariff.pdf>. Charge of a hostel guest room will be ~Rs. 300-400 per person per day.

All IIT Roorkee rules will be applicable for the accommodation in IIT hostels and guest houses. Apart from these limited number accommodations, hotels are available nearby IIT Roorkee. Participants are requested to contact the hotels directly for booking.

Except the morning breakfast, all other meals will be arranged at the conference venue during the conference days.
